Message From Our CEO

I believe seniors deserve more than care they deserve community, joy, and purpose. That's why I founded Umang Living, blending 25+ years of hospitality expertise to reimagine senior living in India.

I'm passionate about creating spaces where seniors can live with dignity, joy, and connection.

Over the years, I've seen how loneliness quietly steals joy from the lives of our elders even those surrounded by family. I've felt that pain closely, watching loved ones grow silent, distant, and forgotten.

It broke something in me. How could people who once gave us everything be left with so little no companionship, no purpose, no joy? That heartbreak stayed with me. For two years, I poured my heart into researching, dreaming, and building Umang Living a warm, vibrant space where seniors can live with dignity, surrounded by friends, laughter, and meaningful moments. Umang is my way of giving back a sanctuary where the elderly are not just cared for, but celebrated.

Senior Care Sector Offers Great Business Opportunities

India's urban senior citizen population is flourishing. Currently, there are about 1.4 crore urban senior citizens, and this number is expected to triple by 2050. The senior care market is valued at an impressive ₹1,42,800 crores, with senior spending around ₹8,500 each month on health and daily needs.

These are real people who will need comprehensive senior care support. And partnering with Umang Living means you'll be directly involved in providing them with these services.

This is a significant opportunity for franchise partners to make a meaningful impact in the senior citizen care space and contribute to a rapidly growing sector of the economy.
